Governance ñ Developments

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

N/P

Election Planning Continues:

- ï The Independent Electoral Commission of Iraq (IECI) continues distributing informational pamphlets on voter registration procedures in preparation for the January elections.
- ï IECI successfully distributed registration materials to 21 regional centers.
- ï Voter registration began Monday, 1 November at 550 registration centers located mostly where Iraqis receive food rations.
- ï IECI is hiring 6,500 workers to staff local and regional electoral offices.
- ï Eight electoral experts are among the 35 UN international staff in Iraq.

Womenís Role in the Elections:

- ï The National Democratic Institute holds workshops for women representing nine different political parties and identified as likely candidates in the national elections.
- ï The International Republican Institute (IRI) created a Women's Leadership Institute to assist women in becoming more effective advocates for their constituencies.
- ï IRI is sponsoring the NGO ìMothers of Iraqî in its campaign to educate and register women to vote.

Governance ñ Developments

Capacity Building:

- ï USAID continues to implement Local Governance Programs (LGPs) in 18 governorates, increasing Iraqis' understanding of democratic principles and the political process.
  - ñ Representatives of two district councils in Atí Tamim Governorate participated in a series of seminars entitled "Budgeting in Local Government: A Democratic Process", organized by LGP and attended by a majority of members from both district councils. Participants received training in budgeting and strategic planning, important to improving their skills in evaluating projects and understanding the interface between different levels of governmental budgets.
- ï The State Department is promoting capacity building and democracy through US-based programs for Iraqis.
  - ñ "Public Affairs: The Art of Engaging and Informing the People" International Visitor Program (October 16 ñ November 6): The nine-person group coming from various Iraqi ministries, the Prime Minister's office and the Baghdad City Council are receiving extensive hands-on training at the State Department and at other agencies on the public affairs function.
  - ñ "Elections" International Visitor Program (October 23 ñ November 13): The six person group of Iraqi journalists and NGO leaders are observing the US electoral process up close, before, during and immediately after the November elections.

Economic Development

Middle East Business Forum:

- ï The Commerce Department's U.S. Export Assistance Center, the World Trade Center Institute and the Maryland/Washington D.C. District Export Council will host the Middle East Business Forum on 29 November at the World Trade Center in Baltimore, MD.
- ï The event will cover current business climates and market opportunities throughout the Middle East, with a focus on Iraq including a Middle East Regional Outlook, a Middle East Business Forum, and Executive Briefings from CEOs currently doing business in the Middle East.
- ï One program of the Middle East Business Forum, Iraq and Afghanistan Reconstruction Outlook, will include speakers from the U.S. Department of Commerce, the Trade Bank of Iraq, JP Morgan Chase Bank, the Steele Foundation, AIG Worldsource, and CEOs currently doing business in Iraq.

Essential Services ñ Water and Sanitation

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Water Treatment Projects:

- ï Repairs of a major water treatment plant in Atí Tamim Governorate are 50% complete, and completion is scheduled for the end of November 2004. Under the Iraq Infrastructure Reconstruction Program, USAID is employing 124 Iraqis to repair the facility and return it to full capacity.

USAID Waste Water Treatment Projects:

- ï Design work is 80% complete and on 28 October, construction began on a sewage trunk line in a large, economically depressed district of Baghdad. The line will extend service to new areas and replace an old system that was prone to leaks and breakage. Project completion is scheduled for December 2005.

Sanitation Projects:

- ï USAIDís new project to construct a landfill to serve Baghdad and surrounding governorates has begun with site excavation expected to begin in about two weeks which is scheduled to be completed in spring 2005.
  - ñ The total project includes the construction of a three-to-five-year capacity landfill, as well as a master plan to expand the landfill to a 20 year capacity. The landfill area will also include a recycling and sorting area to handle nine to 23 tons of solid waste per day and will meet U.S. Environmental Protection Agency regulations for municipal solid waste facilities.

Public Distribution System (PDS) and MOT-Awarded Contracts:

- ï Embassy officials have received 94 contracts under MOT II, including pulses, tea, infant formula, vegetable oil/ghee, infant cereals and adult milk, which have been compiled into a new draft pipeline report that will be used to track those shipments.
- ï The Ministry of Trade sent a special team to Beirut, Lebanon last week to work on immediate funding of 20 contracts (which include sugar, infant formula, baby food, adult milk, soap and lentils) that were identified for immediate delivery, and the remaining 78 contracts under MOT II. Of those contracts, 45 L/Cs have been issued and the Ministry of Trade plans to complete the remaining 56 L/Cs this week.
- ï MOT plans to begin tendering, awarding contracts, and funding L/Cs, for commodities for MOT III during the first quarter of 2005.

Essential Services ñ Health Care & Education

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

USAID Health Services Accomplishments to Date:

- ï Vaccinated over 3 million children under five and 700,000 pregnant women during recent vaccination campaigns.
- ï Provided doses of vitamin A for more than 600,000 children under two and 1.5 million lactating mothers.
- ï Distributed high protein biscuits to more than 450,000 children and 200,000 pregnant and nursing mothers.
- ï Provided potable water for 400,000 persons each day in Basrah City and 170,000 persons in Kirkuk and Mosul.

Current Education Construction Projects:

- ï The U.S. Project and Contracting Office (PCO) is completing renovations on about 200 schools, and soon plans to begin work on 1,000 more.
- ï So far, work has focused on the southern part of the country, but will soon move north. The entire project will cost $79 million, or about $35,000 to $65,000 per school.
- ï International charities continue to help build schools; 600 of the 1,200 schools the PCO originally planned to renovate had already been improved and thus PCO resources were redirected to additional schools.

USAIDís Iraq Infrastructure Reconstruction Program:

- ï The rehabilitation of a material testing laboratory at a southern Iraqi university is complete. This project is part of USAIDís Iraq Infrastructure Reconstruction Program and was identified as being suitable for development in response for the need to perform tests on materials which will support the construction activities in Iraq.
- ï The major works undertaken in the upgrade of the laboratory included building and services improvements and furniture and equipment, repair, supply and installation of additional testing laboratory equipment, and institutional strengthening to enhance the standard of services provided by the laboratory.

The World Bank Supports the IIGís Goal to Improve Education:

- ï The IIG presented education as one of the key sectors targeted for reform in Iraqís National Development Strategy. The Ministry of Education has partnered with the World Bank to provide support to meet the following goals:
  - ñ Eliminate double sessions, construct 100 new schools, and repair 140 damaged schools in the next four years. The construction and repairs will be complemented by training and advisory support to Iraqi civil servants in key areas of education reform.
  - ñ Print and distribute 69 million textbooks for the 2004-2005 school year, which is being financed by the multi-donor trust fund.

Essential Services ñ Telecommunications

- ï Total number of telephone subscribers in Iraq is now over 2,028,000 (including 1,078,000 cell phone subscribers) ñ 143% above pre-war levels.
- ï There are now 950,000 land line telephone subscribers in Iraq, compared with 833,000 subscribers pre-war, a 14% increase.

- ï There are 103,000 internet subscribers now, compared with less than 12,000 before the war. These statistics do not reflect the large number of unregulated users of Internet cafÈs.
